“Primavera”

“Spring”

Aroma, color, belleza silvestre
 Primavera el mejor tiempo del año
 Las aves trinan
 Y perpetuan la especie
 La vida surge de nuevo
 La mirada vuelve a ser brillante
 Floresen los bosques
 Floresen los campos y el desierto
 Floresen el alma de los hombres.

Smell, color, wild beauty,
 Springtime is the best season.
 The birds are trilling,
 And perpetuating their genius class.
 The life rises again,
 The look becomes sparkling.
 The forest blossoms,
 The wilderness and fields blossom,
 The souls of men blossom.

By Faustino Valenzuela

Write a poem in English about Spring. Try to add words that describe it. After you write the poem, make a list of all the words that sound the same, and also change some words.

To hear Faustino read another poem, go to the Northern Arizona Book Festival poetry reading on Saturday, 4/22 at 7:00 pm at the Orpheum theatre for $5. Enjoy!
